KALASH NATH

KISHTWAR, APR 2: As the SVEEP campaign gains momentum in anticipation of the upcoming General Election to the Lok Sabha 2024, Kishtwar district, a constituent of the 48th Parliamentary constituency witnessed a significant stride with the hosting of an impressive Youth Parliament at GDC Kishtwar.

The Mock Parliament exercise, orchestrated by the District Election Office under the leadership of District Election Officer Dr. Devansh Yadav in collaboration with SVEEP Nodal Officer Dr. Yasar Ahmed of GDC Kishtwar and under the supervision of District Nodal Officer SVEEP/Deputy District Election Officer caused a remarkable display of democratic engagement.

ARO 48 Assembly Constituency Kishtwar/ADC Pawan Kotwal was the Chief Guest underscoring the importance of youth participation in the electoral process. With over 200 participants, including NCC cadets and NSS volunteers, the Youth Parliament deliberated upon the theme "Social Media and Democracy," mirroring the proceedings of the Indian Parliament with fervent debates and discussions.

The event commenced with the rendition of the National Anthem and a warm welcome address by Prof.

Tabassum Saleem. Dignitaries including Accounts Officer DC Office Complex Kishtwar Satinder Singh, District Information Officer Kishtwar Dr. Kuldeep Kumar, BDO Trigam Chandan Manhas, Incharge Principal GDC Prof. Umar Deen, NSS Programme Officers Esar Ul Ayoub, and NCC ANO Prathvi Raj attended the occasion. Presentations by NCC and NSS, coupled with engaging debates and captivating Classical Dance/cultural performances, enthralled the youth, imparting valuable lessons on democracy and the rich cultural diversity of the nation. An open Quiz session on the Parliamentary and constitutional process in our country was also held on the occasion wherein the awards were given away. The Voter's pledge was also administered to the participants on the occasion. The chief guest on the occasion addressing the Youth Parliament, highlighted the role of Youth in the democratic process and threw light on the significance of voting rights in a healthy democracy.
